PRESENTATIONS & POSTERS (* = (co-) first author)

PEER-REVIEWED PRESENTATIONS

Planning ahead with RSA: Efficient signalling in dynamic environments by projecting user awareness across future timesteps. Talk at Autonomous Agents and Multiagent Systems (AAMAS) 25, Paphos, May 2026. (with Anwesha Das, Jörg Hoffmann, and Vera Demberg; received Pragnesh Jay Modi Best Student Paper Award)

*Readers do commit incrementally to causal inferences, under pressure for rich encoding. Poster at the Conference on Human Sentence Processing (HSP) 39, MIT, March 2026. (with Pranav Anand and Amanda Rysling)

*Jointly modeling maze RT and accuracy using diffusion models: A first case study. Talk at AMLaP 31, Prague, September 2025. (with Laura Pissani)

Integrating language model embeddings into ACT-R. Poster at AMLaP 31, Prague, September 2025. (with Maryam Meghdadi and Vera Demberg)

*An ACT-R model of resource-rational performance in a pragmatic reference game. Talk at the Annual Meeting of the Cognitive Science Society (CogSci) 47, San Francisco, July 2025. (with Alexandra Mayn and Vera Demberg)

People do not engage in ad-hoc reasoning about alternative messages when interacting with a literal speaker. Poster at the Annual Meeting of the Cognitive Science Society (CogSci) 47, San Francisco, July 2025. (with Alexandra Mayn, Natalia Bila, and Vera Demberg)

*Incremental interpretation of discourse coherence: Evidence from reading times. Poster at the Semantics and Linguistic Theory (SALT) 35, Harvard, May 2025. (with Kelsey Sasaki and Daniel Altshuler)

*Eager interpretation of discourse-level ambiguities: New evidence for costly reanalysis. Poster at the Conference on Human Sentence Processing (HSP) 38, U of Maryland, March 2025. (with Kelsey Sasaki and Daniel Altshuler)

*Cross-linguistic variation in structural prediction as learned behavior. Talk at Rational Approaches in Language Science (RAILS) 2, February 2025, Saarland University. (with Delaney Gomez-Jackson, Fe Silva Robles, Maziar Toosarvandani, and Matthew Wagers)

Listeners adapt to speakers' pragmatic competence. Poster at Rational Approaches in Language Science (RAILS) 2, February 2025, Saarland University; accepted as a talk at XPrag Fest 2025 (Experiments on the Semantics/Pragmatics Interface), June 2025, ZAS. (with Kata Naszadi, Alexandra Mayn, and Vera Demberg)

*Reanalysis in discourse comprehension: Evidence from reading times. Poster at the Amsterdam Colloquium, December 2024. (with Daniel Altshuler)

- *The role of reinforcement learning in pragmatic reasoning tasks: Modeling individual differences in ACT-R. Talk at XPrag.it 5, Venice, September 2024. (with Alexandra Mayn and Vera Demberg)
- *Not as rational as RSA predicts: Failure to reason about alternative messages. Poster at XPrag.it 5, Venice, September 2024. (with Alexandra Mayn, Natalia Bila, and Vera Demberg)
- *Effects of foil processing, decision-making, and initial attention in the Maze task. Poster at AMLaP 30, Edinburgh, September 2024. (with Pranav Anand and Amanda Rysling)
- *Modeling individual differences in a pragmatic reference game as a consequence of variable disengagement from unsuccessful strategies. Talk in the "Computational Psycholinguistics" symposium at MathPsych/ICCM 2024, Tilburg, July 2024. (with Alexandra Mayn and Vera Demberg)
- *Delayed structural prediction for relative clauses in Santiago Laxopa Zapotec, a language with robust resumptive pronouns. Talk at the Conference on Human Sentence Processing (HSP) 37, UMich, May 2024. (with Delaney Gomez-Jackson, Fe Silva Robles, Maziar Toosarvandani, and Matthew Wagers)
- *Different structural boundaries have different effects on dependency resolution. Poster at the Conference on Human Sentence Processing (HSP) 37, UMich, May 2024. (with Lalitha Balachandran, Pranav Anand, and Amanda Rysling)
- *Incremental computation of scalar implicatures in the Maze task. Talk at XPrag X, Paris, September 2023. (with Pranav Anand and Amanda Rysling)
- *No cost to cancelling causal inferences in the comprehension of short English narratives. Poster at AMLaP 29, BCBL, September 2023. (with Pranav Anand and Amanda Rysling)
- *Partition vs. compression: Memory domains and the processing of appositives. Poster at AMLaP 28, University of York, September 2022. (with Lalitha Balachandran, Pranav Anand, and Amanda Rysling)
- *In search of pragmatic discounting: Lessons from direct discourse and causal adjuncts. Talk at Processing Meets Semantics (PROMS), Utrecht, September 2022. (with Pranav Anand, Adrian Brasoveanu, and Amanda Rysling)
- *Participants seek shared outlooks in non-canonical disagreements: Evidence from a corpus of dyadic conversation in English. Talk at SemDial, Technological University Dublin, August 2022. (with Lalitha Balachandran)

*Task effects on the processing of predicate ambiguity: Distributivity in the Maze. Short talk at Experiments in Linguistic Meaning (ELM) 2, UPenn, May 2022. (with Adrian Brasoveanu and Amanda Rysling)

*Use/Mention ambiguities in comprehension: Evidence from agreement attraction. Short talk at the Conference on Human Sentence Processing (HSP) 35, UC Santa Cruz, March 2022. (with Matthew Wagers)

"It's alive!": Animacy-based structural expectations rapidly update with context. Short talk at the Conference on Human Sentence Processing (HSP) 35, UC Santa Cruz, March 2022. (with Stephanie Rich, Lalitha Balachandran, Matthew Kogan, Nicholas Van Handel, Maya Wax Cavallaro, and Matthew Wagers)

*Tonal patterns and their restrictions in Santiago Laxopa Zapotec. Talk at the Society for the Study of the Indigenous Languages of the Americas (SSILA) Annual Meeting, January 2022. (with Mykel L. Brinkerhoff and Maya Wax Cavallaro)

*Associated motion and the structure of the verb in Santiago Laxopa Zapotec. Talk at the Workshop on Structure and Constituency in Languages of the Americas (WSCLA) 25, UC San Diego, May 2021.

*Downstep in Santiago Laxopa Zapotec and the prosodic typology of VSO languages. Talk at the Manchester Phonology Meeting (mfm) 28, May 2021. (with Mykel L. Brinkerhoff and Maya Wax Cavallaro)

*A mighty Maze! Revisiting strategic underspecification using the Maze task. Talk at California Meeting on Psycholinguistics (CAMP) 4, UC Irvine, May 2021. (with Shayne Sloggett, Nicholas Van Handel, Kelsey Sasaki, Stephanie Rich, Wesley Orth, Pranav Anand, Adrian Brasoveanu and Amanda Rysling)

*Composing associated motion in Santiago Laxopa Zapotec. Talk at the West Coast Conference on Formal Linguistics (WCCFL) 39, U of Arizona, April 2021. (Handout)

*Task influences on lexical underspecification: Insights from the Maze and SPR. Short talk at CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing, UPenn, March 2021. (with Adrian Brasoveanu and Amanda Rysling)

*Semantic commitment and underspecification in the Maze. Poster at AMLaP, University of Potsdam, September 2020. (with Adrian Brasoveanu and Amanda Rysling)

*The processing of direct discourse: When a subordinate speech act sticks around. Poster at CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing, UMass Amherst, March 2020. (with Pranav Anand, Adrian Brasoveanu, and Amanda Rysling)

"Ambiguous" isn't "underspecified": Evidence from the Maze task. Poster at CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing, UMass Amherst, March 2020. (with Shayne Sloggett, Nicholas Van Handel, Kelsey Sasaki, Stephanie Rich, Wesley Orth, Pranav Anand, and Amanda Rysling)

*The locus of commitment: Flipping judges in a commitment-based discourse model. Poster at ESSLLI 31 Student Session, University of Latvia, August 2019.

*Individual differences and the relationship between attitude predicates and perspective. Talk at California Meeting on Psycholinguistics (CAMP) 2, University of Southern California, December 2018.

*Says who?: The influence of speech and mental predicates on epithet interpretation. Poster at CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing, UC Davis, April 2018.

*Evidence for multiple memory representations from discourse anaphora and ellipsis. Poster at CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing, UC Davis, April 2018. (with Lyn Frazier)

*Udi and the location of Caucasian Albanian agreement clitics. Poster at Linguistic Society of America (LSA) Annual Meeting, Salt Lake City, January 2018. (with Alice C. Harris)

*Anticipating negation: Experimental evidence for a semantic account of Neg Raising. Poster at CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing, MIT, March 2017. (with Lyn Frazier, Charles Clifton Jr., and Stephanie Rich)

OTHER PRESENTATIONS

*Probing incrementality in discourse processing with familiar tools from sentence processing. Invited talk, Workshop on Hypothesis-Based Approaches to Discourse Processing, Los Angeles, June 2026. (with Kelsey Sasaki)

*Reading minds when it matters: Variation and adaptation in pragmatic reasoning tasks. Invited colloquium, Illinois State University, Department of Psychology, April 2026.

*Utility-learning and vector-based similarity in ACT-R models of language comprehension. Invited presentation at the 2nd Workshop on Large Language Models and Program Comprehension, Saarland University Chair of Software Engineering, November 2024.

*Semantic garden paths and the timing of comprehension decisions. Invited colloquium, University of Oxford Faculty of Linguistics, Philology and Phonetics, May 2024.

*Coherence inferences are made quickly but tentatively. Invited guest lecture for seminar on discourse processing (Kelsey Sasaki & Daniel Altshuler), University of Oxford, May 2024.

Various contributions to Guillem Belmar, Mykel Loren Brinkerhoff, Eric W. Campbell, and Maya Wax Cavallaro (orgs.) Engaging the community: Using field methods classes for community outreach, organized session at the Society for the Study of the Indigenous Languages of the Americas (SSILA) Annual Meeting, January 2023.

- Developing computer games in field methods classes: A tool for language teaching and revitalization. (Talk) (with Giorgia Troiani, Jeremías Salazar, Andrew Hedding, Matthew Kogan, Natalia Gracida Cruz, Fe Silva-Robles, and Mykel Lorne Brinkerhoff)
- Implementing Game of Tones. (Tutorial) (with Andrew Hedding, Matthew Kogan, and Mykel Lorne Brinkerhoff)
- Story books as outcomes from Field Methods classes: P'urhépecha, Sà'án Sàvĩ ñà Yukúnanĩ and Santiago Laxopa Zapotec. (Talk) (with Jeremías Salazar, Martín Gabriel Ruiz, Eric W. Campbell, Guillem Belmar, Maya Wax Cavallaro, Raul Diaz Robles, Delaney Gomez-Jackson, Claire Miller Willahan, and Mykel Lorne Brinkerhoff)

*Deriving “restrictive” interpretations for clarificatory nominal appositives. Talk at California Universities Semantics & Pragmatics (CUSP) 13, UCLA, May 2022.

*The causal properties of associated motion. Talk at the Converging On Causal Ontology Analyses (COCOA) workshop, CNRS (OASIS), September 2021.

*To flip a judge: Predicates of personal taste in a commitment-based discourse model. Invited talk at UC Berkeley's Syntax & Semantics Circle, October 2019 & Talk at California Universities Semantics & Pragmatics (CUSP) 12, University of Southern California, November 2019.

2022–2023

Undergraduate Mentees: Sebastian Bissiri, Pamela Casipe, Jason Kushner, Kasey La, Kavi Mookherjee Amodt

- ▶ Running participants in eye-tracking while reading experiments.

Science Internship Program

2020, 2021

High School Student Mentees: Robert Liu, Stephanie Palomares, Vindhya Shigehalli, Jacqueline Wen, Naomi Wong

- ▶ Prepared, annotated, and analyzed a corpus of response particles in naturalistic conversation.
- ▶ Generated a submission to the Columbia Junior Science Journal.

Conversation Lab

2020–2021

Undergraduate Mentees: Dasha Komissarchik, David Tuffs

- ▶ Collected a corpus of naturalistic conversation.

Honig Undergraduate Research Assistant Program

2020

Undergraduate Mentee: Jennifer Wheelock

- ▶ Designed procedure for eliciting naturalistic subjective conversation.

OTHER RESEARCH EMPLOYMENT

Graduate Research Assistant

March - September 2023

UC Santa Cruz, NSF Grant BCS-2019804

PIs: Maziar Toosarvandani, Matt Wagers

- ▶ Analyzing and reporting visual-world eye-tracking data collected in 2022.
- ▶ Designing, planning, and developing stimuli for a field judgment experiment on inter-speaker variation in Santiago Laxopa Zapotec.
- ▶ Two weeks in the field in Santiago Laxopa, Oaxaca running the experiment, conducting sociolinguistic interviews, and continuing to build relationships.

Graduate Research Assistant

March - September 2022

UC Santa Cruz, NSF Grant BCS-2019804

PIs: Maziar Toosarvandani, Matt Wagers

- ▶ Designing, planning, and developing stimuli for a field eye-tracking experiment on Santiago Laxopa Zapotec, and pedagogical materials for reading/writing workshops.
- ▶ Two weeks in the field in Santiago Laxopa, Oaxaca running the experiment, conducting sociolinguistic interviews, and continuing to build relationships.

Graduate Research Assistant

June - September 2022

UC Santa Cruz

PI: Grant McGuire

- ▶ Developing a free sorting experiment on voice similarity in jsPsych.

Web Development Consultant

October 2021 - January 2022

UC Santa Cruz, Chamorro Dictionary Revision Project

PIs: Sandy Chung

- ▶ Developed resources for English-to-Chamorro reverse queries using Perl.

Graduate Research Assistant

June - September 2021

UC Santa Cruz, NSF Grant BCS-2019804

PIs: Maziar Toosarvandani, Ivy Sichel

- ▶ Planned, conducted, and analyzed weekly elicitations on resumptive pronouns and the structure of the relative clause in Santiago Laxopa Zapotec.

Graduate Research Assistant

June - September 2019

UC Santa Cruz

PIs: Pranav Anand, Maziar Toosarvandani

- ▶ Developed neo4j backend for Códice fieldwork software.

Graduate Research Assistant

June - September 2019

UC Santa Cruz

PIs: Pranav Anand, Jim McCloskey

- ▶ Trained undergraduates in the development of web-based experiments.

Research Assistant

January - September 2018

UMass Amherst, NSF Grant BCS-1729256

PIs: Alice Harris, Arthur Samuel

- ▶ Traveled with Harris to Azerbaijan for two weeks of field work on Udi.
- ▶ Prepared stimuli and conducted analysis for field experiments.

Intern, Research Assistant

June - August 2017

Center for the Study of Language and Information, Stanford University

PIs: Katherine Hilton, Rob Podesva

- ▶ Developed an experiment on visual attention attribution over multiple speakers.

Research Assistant

September 2016 - May 2018

UMass Amherst

PIs: Lyn Frazier and Charles Clifton, Jr.

Publications Assistant

June - August 2016

Center for Hellenic Studies, Harvard University

- ▶ Used TEI-compliant XML to encode texts for the Open Greek and Latin Initiative.

Software Developer (Volunteer)

June - August 2016

Classical Language ToolKit (CLTK)

- Developed an IPA transcription engine and related tools for the automatic metrical parsing of digital texts in Ancient Greek and Classical Latin orthography.

Research Assistant

September 2015 - December 2017

UMass Amherst, Phonetics Lab

PI: John Kingston
